Calling All Directors

Thank you to those who submitted a proposal. The Board will be reviewing the requests and will let everyone know shortly.

*"So glad we came to see Oklahoma!
Wonderful job!
Such talent!"*

Scholarship Fund Raiser – Comedy Night at The Snug

Featuring comedian Mike Green, August 16th & 17th 7 & 10 PM shows. Mike is quickly becoming one of the top and most requested National headliners. He has a natural likeability. With original jokes and the knowledge to make it all look made up every time... Clever "Clean Comedy" is what he brings to the table. With a strong improv background, he takes you on an hour long "Comedy Vacation". A portion of the proceeds will benefit the St. Clair Theatre Guild John and Avis Cobb Scholarship Fund. Come join us for a delightful show and a great cause!

2012–13 Season In Review

A highlight in the community is the annual Christmas Caroling to Mallards Landing & Medi Lodge. The hour is spent signing Christmas Carols to the many residence. Thank you again to the Tony & Janelle Cavis for hosting the after party. Always a good time!

This year Susquatch has been a visible face in the community. The men in harmony along with the board and several members created a float for the Christmas Parades in St. Clair and Marine City. The float took 2nd in St. Clair and everyone had a blast decked out in their elf & Rudolf costumes. Thank you Susquatch for being the face of SCTG!

This was a quite year for SCTG, a year of rebuilding. Many of you may not have realized that The Guild was in jeopardy of being done as an organization. The board spent many hours working on plans to re-establish the organization and keep it viable. The leg work and extra activity to make Oklahoma succeed was important to many of us. Of course, having such a talented cast and seasoned director just made the job that much easier. Oklahoma's success allows The Guild to survive for another year. However, your participation is needed on every level from board members, cast members, back stage workers, publicity and more. Please participate so we can continue with such a great tradition in the Blue Water Area.

Thank you Kathy, Paul & Kim

The board would like to thank Kathy, Paul & Kim for their leadership in making SCTG a success this past year. Kathy's business savvy and expertise was the driving force behind the Guild's success this past year. Paul's musical talent is second to none! Kim's organizational skills to keep us all focused will be missed. We wish them luck as they move on to new adventures and we look forward to their participation in other capacities. Thank you & you will be missed!
